

Just a short story the Kewley family and Myrtle's parents attended a country catholic church, near where Harry DuBray lived. The priest was Father Gall a grounder old priest. Sometimes he would arrive on Saturday and stay at the Kewley farm for the night, on one of these evenings he discovered that Larry had a serious stuttering problem he would start to stutter and couldn't get the word out and close his eyes and shake his head, so Father Gall took him and made him say prayers very slowly for quite a long time. After that he was able to speak without the stutter. ANONYMOUS
